

I truly like the articles that are published in the KANSAS Child magazine, they are very useful to me, and I like to pass them along to the families in my program.

— Shannon, family child care provider

Dear Child Care Professional,

The time is Right

As a child care professional, you have the most important job in Kansas – and you deserve the best resources. Busy child care professionals don't have time to search for the latest trends, the newest research or to find out about statewide initiatives in early childhood.
